

VOLUNTEERS INSURANCE SERVICE COMBINED EXCESS LIABILITY POLICY

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy the words “you” and “your” refer to the named Organization shown in the Declarations. The words “we”, “us” and “our” refer to the company providing this insurance. The “Retained limit” references throughout the policy only applies to the “auto coverage” afforded.

The word “Insured” means any individual “registered volunteer” qualifying as such under SECTION II – WHO IS AN INSURED.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to SECTION V – DEFINITIONS.

SECTION I – COVERAGE

A. Insuring Agreement

1. Volunteer Excess Liability. We will pay all sums in excess of any applicable limit of insurance of any other insurance collectible by the insured that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of “bodily injury”, “property damage” or “personal injury” to which this insurance applies. The amount we will pay is limited as described in SECTION III – LIMITS OF INSURANCE.

Volunteer Excess Auto Liability. We will pay all sums in excess of the “retained limit” that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of “Bodily injury”, “property damage” or “personal injury” to which this insurance applies. The amount we will pay is limited as described in SECTION III – LIMITS OF INSURANCE.

2. Both insuring agreements apply “bodily injury”, “property damage” or “personal injury” only if:
 - a. The “bodily injury”, “property damage” or “personal injury” arises out of the performance of the insured’s volunteer service on behalf of the “Named Organization”, including traveling directly to and from his or her home and place of volunteer service;
 - b. (1) The “bodily injury” or “property damage” is caused by an “occurrence” under the volunteer excess liability or “accident under the volunteer excess auto liability”;
(2) The “personal injury” is caused by an offense under the volunteer excess liability or an “accident” under the volunteer excess auto liability;

That takes place in the “coverage” territory, and

- c. The “bodily injury”, “property damage” or “personal injury” occurs during the policy period.
3. Damages because of “bodily injury” or “personal injury” include damages claimed by any person or organization for care, loss of services or death resulting at any time from the “bodily injury”.
 - a. We have the right to participate with the insured or with the insurer of other insurance in the defense of any “suit” that might involve this insurance. In such event, the insured or insurer and we shall cooperate fully.
 - b. In the event that the “Retained limit” for excess auto liability, or other insurance limit for excess volunteer liability, is exhausted, we have the right and duty to defend the insured against any “suit” to which this insurance applies and is immediately in excess of such "retained limit" or other insurance without intervening self-insurance or excess insurance.

- c. We may at our discretion investigate any "occurrence" or "accident" or offense to which this insurance applies and settle any claim that may result. We have no duty to defend any insured against any "suit" to which this insurance does not apply.
 - d. Our duty to defend any "suit" ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under this insurance.
- 4. No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services if covered unless explicitly provided for under SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENTS, provided always that a limit if shown on the certificate of insurance and the corresponding premium has been paid.
 - 5. Any "bodily injury", "property damage" or "personal injury" caused by an accident covered under the Volunteer Excess Auto Liability Coverage is not covered under the Volunteer Excess Liability Coverage.

B. Common Policy Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:

1. Expected or Intended Injury

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. This exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" resulting from the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property.

2. Contractual Liability

"Bodily injury", "property damage" or "personal injury" for which the insured is obligated to pay damages by reason of the assumption of liability in a contract or agreement. This exclusion does not apply to liability for damages:

- a. That the insured would have in the absence of the contract or agreement; or
- b. Arising out of "bodily injury" or "property damage" or "personal injury" assumed in a contract or agreement that is an "incidental contract", provided the "bodily injury" or property damage" or "personal injury" occurs subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement. Solely for the purposes of liability assumed in an "incidental contract", reasonable attorney fees and necessary litigation expenses incurred by or for a party other than an insured are deemed to be damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage", provided:
 - (1) Liability to such party for, or for the cost of, that party's defense has also been assumed in the same "incidental contract", and
 - (2) Such attorney fees and litigation expenses are for defense of that party against a civil or alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which damages to which this insurance applies are alleged.

3. Workers Compensation and similar Laws

Any obligation of the insured under a workers compensation, disability benefits or unemployment compensation law or any similar law.

4. Pollution

“Bodily injury” or “property damage” arising out of the actual, alleged or threatened discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of “pollutants”.

a. That are, or that are contained in any property that is:

- (1) Being transported or towed by, handled, or handled for movement into, onto or from, the covered “auto”;
- (2) Otherwise in the course of transit by or on behalf of the “insured”; or
- (3) Being stored, disposed of, treated or processed in or upon the covered “auto”.

b. Before the “pollutants” or any property in which the “pollutants” are contained are moved from the place where they are accepted by the “insured” for movement into or onto the covered “auto”; or

c. After the “pollutants” or any property in which the “pollutants” are contained are moved from the covered “auto” to the place where they are finally delivered, disposed of or abandoned by the “insured”.

Paragraph a. above does apply to fuels, lubricants, fluids, exhaust gases or other similar “pollutants” that are needed for or result from the normal electrical, hydraulic or mechanical functioning of the covered “auto or its parts if:

- (1) The “pollutants” escape, seep, migrate or are discharged, dispersed or released directly from an “auto” part designed by its manufacturer to hold, store, receive or dispose of such “pollutants”; and
- (2) The “bodily injury”, “property damage” or covered pollution cost or expense does not arise out of the operation or any equipment listed in the definition of “mobile equipment”.

Paragraphs b. and c. above of this exclusion do not apply to “accidents” that occur away from premises owned by or rented to an “insured with respect to “pollutants” not in or upon a covered “auto” if:

- (1) The “pollutants” or any property in which the “pollutants” are contained are upset, overturned or damages as a result of the maintenance or use of a covered “auto”, and
- (2) The discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of the “pollutants” is caused directly by such upset, overturn or damage.

5. Aircraft or Watercraft

“Bodily injury” or “property damage” arising out of the ownership, maintenance, use of entrustment to others of any aircraft or watercraft owned or operated by or rented or loaned to any insured. Use includes operation and “loading or unloading”.

This exclusion does not apply to:

a. A watercraft you do not own that is:

- (1) Less than 26 feet long; and
- (2) Not being used to carry persons or property for a charge;

b. Liability assumed under any “incidental contract” for the ownership, maintenance or use of aircraft or watercraft.

6. War

“Bodily injury” or property damage” due to war, whether or not declared, or any act or conditions incident to war. War includes civil war, insurrection, rebellion or revolution. This exclusion applies only to liability assumed under a contract or agreement.

7. Damage to Property

“Property damage” to:

- a. Property owned, rented or occupied by the insured;
- b. Property loaned to the insured; or
- c. Property in the care, custody or control of the insured;

Paragraphs b. and c. of this exclusion do not apply to liability assumed under a sidetrack agreement, and paragraph c. of this exclusion does not apply to “property damage” (other than to elevators) arising out of the use of an elevator at the premises owned by, rented to or controlled by the “Named Organization”

8. Personal Injury

“Personal injury”:

- a. Arising out of oral or written publication of material, if done by or at the direction of the insured with knowledge of its falsity;
- b. Arising out of oral or written publication of material whose first publication took place before the beginning of the policy period;
- c. Arising out of a criminal act committed by or at the direction of any insured;

9. Professional

Liability arising out of “professional services” or “professional health care” where the insured is a licensed professional in that particular field.

10. Racing

“Autos” or “mobile equipment” while used in any professional or organized racing or demolition contest or speed or stunting activity, or while practicing for such contest or activity. This insurance also does not apply while that “auto” is being prepared for such a contest or activity.

11. Work Release and Alternative Sentencing

Liability arising out of the actions of any person who is a part of a “work release program” or “court referred alternative sentencing volunteer program” or part of a program related to or associated in any manner with a “work release program”.

The following exclusions apply solely to volunteer excess auto coverage:

12. Uninsured/Underinsured

Any obligation under any uninsured or underinsured motorists law, "no-fault" law, basic reparations benefit law, any law requiring personal injury protection coverage, or any similar law.

13. Operations

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of the operations of equipment listed in the definition of "mobile equipment"

14. Handling of Property

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" resulting from the handling of property:

- a. Before it is moved from the place where it is accepted by the insured for movement into or onto the "auto"; or
- b. After it is removed from the "auto" to the place where it is finally delivered by the insured"

15. Movement of Property by Mechanical Device

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" resulting from the movement of property by a mechanical device (other than a hand truck) unless the device is attached to the "auto".

SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENTS COVERAGES

We will pay, with respect to any claim we investigate or settle, or any "suit" against an insured we defend:

- A. All expenses we incur.
- B. Up to $2,000 for cost of bail bonds required because of accidents or traffic laws violations arising out of the use of any vehicle to which the Volunteer Excess Auto Liability Coverage applies. We do not have to furnish these bonds.
- C. The cost of bonds to release attachments, but only for bond amounts within the applicable limit of insurance. We do not have to furnish these bonds.
- D. All reasonable expenses incurred by the insured at our request to assist us in the investigation or defense of the claim "suit", including actual loss of earnings up to $250 a day because of time off from work.
- E. All costs taxed against the insured in any "suit" against the insured we defend.
- F. All interest on the full amount of any judgment that accrues after entry of the judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay, or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within the applicable limit of insurance.
- G. Reasonable expense incurred by the insured, in connection with "bodily injury" to which this insurance applies, for such immediate medical and surgical relief to others as shall be necessary at the time of the accident.

These payments will not reduce the limits of insurance.

If we defend an insured against a "suit" and an indemnitee of the insured is also named as a party to the "suit", we will defend that indemnitee if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The "suit" against the indemnitee seeks damages for which the insured has assumed the liability of the indemnitee in a contract or agreement that is an "incidental contract";
2. This insurance applies to such liability assumed by the insured;

3. The obligation to defend, or the cost of the defense of, that indemnitee, has also been assumed by the insured in the same "incidental contract".
4. The allegations in the "suit" and the information we know about the "occurrence" are such that no conflict appears to exist between the interests of the insured and interests of the indemnitee;
5. The indemnitee and the insured ask us to conduct and control the defense of that indemnitee against such "suit" and Agree that we can assign the same counsel to defend the insured and indemnitee; and
6. The indemnitee:
 - a. Agreed in writing to:
 - (1) Cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the "suit";
 - (2) Immediately send us copies of any demand, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connections with "suit";
 - (3) Notify any other insurer whose coverage is available to the indemnitee; and
 - (4) Cooperate with us with respect to coordinating other applicable insurance available to the indemnitee; and
 - b. Provides us with written authorization to:
 - (1) Obtain records and other information related to the "suit"; and
 - (2) Conduct and control the defense of the indemnitee in such "suit".

So long as the as the above conditions are met, attorneys fees incurred by us in the defense of that indemnitee, necessary litigation expenses incurred by us and necessary litigation expenses incurred by the indemnitee at our request will be paid as Supplementary Payments. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph B.2.b. of Exclusions (Section I –Coverages), such as payments will not be deemed to be damages for "bodily injury" and "property damage" and will not reduce the limits of insurance.

Our obligation to defend an insured's indemnitee and to pay for the attorneys fees and necessary litigation expenses as Supplementary Payments end when:

1. We have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements; or
2. The conditions set forth above, or the terms of the agreement described in paragraph 6. above, are no longer met.

SECTION II – WHO IS AN INSURED

An insured is an individual "registered volunteer" of the "Named Organization", but only with respect to the liability of the "registered volunteer" for volunteer service activities of the "Named Organization" or performance of volunteer service by such "registered volunteer" on behalf of the "Named Organization". The foregoing applies regardless of:

- A. Any college credits given for volunteer work; or
- B. Reimbursement of expenses for mileage driven as a volunteer.

The "Named Organization" shown in the Declarations is not an insured under this policy.

SECTION III – LIMITS OF INSURANCE

A. The Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations and the rules below fix the most we will pay regardless of the Number of:

1. “Autos”;
2. Insureds;
3. Claims made or “suits” brought; or
4. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing “suits”.

B. The Volunteer Excess Liability Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of damages in a policy period under SECTION I – COVERAGE A:

C. Subject to 2. Above:

1. The Volunteer Excess Liability Each Occurrence Limit is most we will pay for the sum of damages under SECTION I – COVERAGE A, because of all:
 - a. “Bodily injury” and “property damage” arising out of anyone “occurrence”; and
 - b. “personal injury” arising out of anyone offense;
of other than an “auto” event.
2. The volunteer Excess Automobile Limit is the most we will pay for damages because of “bodily injury” and “property damage” arising out of anyone “accident”.

The Limits of Insurance of this Policy apply separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than 12 months, starting with the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than 12 months. In that case, the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for purposes of determining the Limits of Insurance.

SECTION IV – CONDITIONS

A. Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured’s estate will not relieve us of our obligations under this Policy.

B. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Offense, Claim or Suit

1. The “Named Organization”, the insured, or someone of behalf of the insured must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an “occurrence”, “accident” or an offense which may result in a claim involving damage which are likely to exceed 50% of the “retained limits” or other insurance.
2. The “Named Organization” and the insured shall cooperate to determine if the “occurrence” or offense took place in the course of the insured’s volunteer service activities on behalf of the “Named Organization”. To the extent possible, notice should include:
 - a. The name of the insured involved;
 - b. How, when and where the “occurrence” or offense took place;

- c. The names and address of any injured persons and witnesses; and
 - d. The nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the "occurrence" or offense.
3. If a claim is made or "suite" is brought against any insured which is likely to involve this insurance, the "Named Organization" and the insured must:
- a. Immediately record the specifics of the claim or "suit" and the date received; and
 - b. Notify us as soon as practicable.

The "Named Organization" and the insured must and the insured must see to it that we receive written notice of the claim or "suite" as soon as practicable.

4. The "Named Organization" or the insured must:

- a. Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or "suit"
- b. Authorize us to obtain records and other information;
- c. Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim or defense against the "suit"; and
- d. Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization, which may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may also apply.

5. Neither the "Named Organization" nor the insured will, except at that "Named Organization's" or the insured's own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense other than for first aid, without our consent.

C. Legal Action Against Us

No person or organization has a right under this Policy:

- 1. To join us as a party or otherwise bring us into a "suit" asking for damages from an insured; or
- 2. To sue us on this Policy unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

A person or organization may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgment against an insured obtained after an actual trial; but we will not be liable for damages that are not payable under the terms of this Policy or that are in excess of the applicable limit of insurance. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the insured and the claimant or the claimant's legal representative.

D. Other Insurance

If other insurance is available to the insured for a loss we cover under SECTION I – COVERAGE of this policy, this insurance is excess over that other insurance and will not apply until all other applicable insurance has been fully exhausted. This insurance shall not contribute with such other insurance.

When this insurance is excess over other insurance, we will pay only our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:

- 1. The "retained limits" under the volunteer excess auto liability; and

2. The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance for excess volunteer liability.

Nothing herein shall be construed to make this policy subject to the terms, conditions and limitations of other insurance.

E. Premium

The premium for this policy is based upon "registered volunteers", and shall be computed by applying to each registered volunteer" the rate shown in the Declarations. The "Named Organization" shall pay the advance premium based on its estimated number of volunteers for the next twelve months. This premium is fully earned at the certificate's inception date. At the end of each twelve-month period, the company shall have the right to request a statement of the actual number of "registered volunteers" during the preceding twelve months. If the earned premium thus computed exceeds the advance premium paid, the "Named Organization" shall pay the excess to us.

Each "Named Organization" shall maintain a roster of "registered volunteers" including the initial date of service and date of termination.

The Minimum Premium shall be as stated in the Declarations.

The first "Named Organization" shown in the Declarations:

1. Is responsible for the payment of all premiums; and
2. Will be the payee for any return premiums we pay.

F. Representations

By accepting this policy, you agree that:

1. The Statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete;
2. Those statements are based upon representations you made to us; and
3. We have issued this policy in reliance upon your representations.

G. Separation of Insureds

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned in this Policy to the first "Named Organization", this insurance applies separately to each insured against which claim is made or "suit" is brought.

H. Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this Policy, those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring "suit" or transfer those rights to us and help us enforce them.

I. When We Do Not Renew

If we decide not to renew this Policy, we will mail or deliver to the first "Named Organization" shown in the Declarations written notice of the nonrenewal not less than 30 days before the expiration date.

If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

J. Cancellation

1. It is the responsibility of the first "Named Organization" shown in the Declarations to properly notify all insured of the cancellation of this policy.
2. The first "named Organization" shown in the Declarations may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to us advance written notice of cancellation.
3. We may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to the first "named Organization" written notice of cancellation at least :
 - a. 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for nonpayment of premium; or
 - b. 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.
4. We will mail or deliver out notice to the first "Named Organization's" last mailing address known to us.
5. Notice of cancellation will state the effective date of cancellation. The policy period will end on that date.
6. If this policy is canceled, we will send the first "Named Organization" any premium refund due. If we cancel, the refund will be pro rata. If the "Named Organization" cancels, the refund may be less than pro rata. The cancellation will be effective even if we have not made or offered a refund.
7. If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

K. Changes

This policy contains all the agreements between you and us concerning the insurance afforded. The first "Named Organization" shown in the Declarations is authorized to make changes in the terms of this policy with our consent, this policy's terms can be amended or waived only by endorsement issued by us and made a part of this policy.

L. Examination on Your Books and Records

We may examine and audit your books and records as they relate to this policy at any time during the policy period and up to three years afterward.

M. Inspection and Surveys

We have the right but are not obligated to:

1. Make inspections and surveys at any time;
2. Give you reports on the conditions we find; and
3. Recommend changes.

Any inspections, surveys, reports or recommendations relate only to insurability and the premiums to be charged. We do not make safety inspections. We do not undertake to perform the duty of any person or organization to provide for the health or safety of workers or the public. We do not warrant any conditions.

SECTION V - DEFINITIONS

- A. "Accident" is an "occurrence" which involved the ownership, maintenance or use of an "auto".

2. A sidetrack agreement;
3. Any easement or license agreement, except in connection with construction of demolition operations on or within 50 feet of a railroad;
4. An obligation, as required by ordinance, to indemnify a municipality, except in connection with work for a municipality;
5. An elevator maintenance agreement;

6. That portion of any contract or agreement entered into, as part of your volunteer service, pertaining to the rental or lease, by an insured, of any "auto". However, such contract or agreement shall not be considered an "incidental contract":

- a. To the extent that it obligates an insured to pay for "property damage" to any "auto" rented or leased to an insured;
- b. If the "auto" is loaned, leased or rented with a driver; or
- c. That holds a person or organization engaged in the business of transporting property by "auto" for hire harmless for use of an "auto" over a route or territory that person or organization is authorized to serve by public authority.

G. "Loading or unloading" means the handling of property:

1. After it is moved from the place where it is accepted for movement into or onto an aircraft or watercraft;
2. While it is in or on an aircraft or watercraft; or
3. While it is being moved from an aircraft or watercraft at the place where it is finally delivered;

but "loading or unloading" does not include the movement of property by means of a mechanical device, other than a hand truck, that is not attached to the aircraft or watercraft.

H. "Mobile equipment" means any of the following types of land vehicles, including any attached machinery or Equipment:

1. Bulldozer, farm machinery, forklifts and other vehicles designed for use principally off public roads;
2. Vehicles maintained for use solely on or next to premises you own or rent;
3. Vehicles that travel on crawler treads;
4. Vehicles, whether self-propelled or not, maintained primarily to provide mobility to permanently mounted:
 - a. Power cranes, shovels, loaders, differs or drills; or
 - b. Road construction or resurfacing equipment such as graders, scrapers or rollers;
5. Vehicles not described in 1.,2.,3. or 4. above that are not self propelled and are maintained primarily to provide Mobility to permanently attached equipment of the following types:
 - a. Air compressors, pumps and generators, including spraying, welding, building cleaning, geophysical exploration, lighting and servicing equipment; or
 - b. Cherry pickers and similar devices used to raise or lower workers;
6. Vehicles not described in 1.,2.,3. or 4. above maintained primarily for purposes other than the transportation of persons or cargo.

However, self-propelled vehicles with the following types of permanently attached equipment are not "mobile equipment" but will be considered "autos":

a. Equipment designed primarily for:

- (1) Snow removal;
- (2) Road maintenance, but not construction or resurfacing; or
- (3) Street cleaning

b. Cherry pickers and similar devices mounted on automobile or truck chassis and used to raise or lower workers;

Certified Acts of Terrorism and Other Acts of Terrorism Exclusion

This endorsement modifies the VOLUNTEERS INSURANCE SERVICE COMBINED EXCESS LIABILITY POLICY as follows:

A. Section I – Subsection B. Common Policy Exclusions is changed by added the following:

This insurance does not apply to:

TERRORISM

“Any injury or damage” arising, directly or indirectly, out of a “certified act of terrorism” or an “other act of Terrorism”. However, with respect to an “other act of terrorism”, this exclusion applies only when one or more of the following are attributed to such act:

1. The total of insured damage to all types of property exceeds $25,000,000. In determining whether the $25,000,000 threshold is exceeded, we will include all insured damage sustained by property of all persons and entities affected by the terrorism, and all business interruption losses sustained by owners or occupants of the damaged property. For the purpose of this provision, insured damage means damage that is covered by any insurance, plus any damage that would be covered by any insurance but for the application of any terrorism exclusions; or
2. Fifty or more persons sustain death or serious physical injury. For the purposes of this provision, serious physical injury means:
 - a. Physical injury that involves a substantial risk of death; or
 - b. Protracted and obvious physical disfigurement; or
 - c. Protracted loss of or impairment of the function of a bodily member or organ; or
3. The terrorism involves the use, release or escape of nuclear materials, or directly or indirectly results in nuclear reaction or radiation or radioactive contamination; or
4. The terrorism is carried out by means of the dispersal or application of pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials; or
5. Pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials are released, and it appears that one purpose of the terrorism was to release such materials.

With respect to this exclusion, Paragraphs 1. and 2. describe the thresholds used to measure the magnitude of an incident of an “other act of terrorism” and the circumstances in which the threshold will apply for the purpose of determining whether this exclusion will apply to that incident.

B. The following definitions are added:

1. For purposes of this endorsement, “any injury or damage” means any injury or damage covered under any Coverage Part or underlying insurance to which this endorsement is applicable, and includes but is not limited to “bodily injury”, “property damage”, “personal and advertising injury”, “injury” or “environmental damage” as may be defined in any applicable Coverage Part or underlying insurance.
2. “Certified act of terrorism” means an act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in concurrence with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General of the United States, to be an act of terrorism pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002. The federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 sets forth the following Criteria for a “certified act of terrorism”:
 - a. The act resulted in aggregate losses in excess of $5 million; and
 - b. The act is a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure and is committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.
3. “Other act of terrorism” means a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure that is committed by an individual or individuals and that appears to be part of an effort to coerce a civilian population or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of any government by coercion, and the act is not certified as a terrorist act pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002. Multiple incidents of an “other act of terrorism” which occur within a seventy-two hour period and appear to be carried out in concert or to have a related purpose or common leadership shall be considered to be one incident.

C. In the event of any incident of a “certified act of terrorism” or an “other act of terrorism” that is not subject to this exclusion, coverage does not apply to any loss or damage that is otherwise excluded under the policy to which this endorsement applies.
