Auto and driver risk management tips provided by: The CIMA Companies, Inc

Traffic Violations Can Lead to Larger Premiums

From time to time, everyone makes an accidental traffic violation. However, a recent study from Insurance.com has shown that some vehicle models are ticketed more frequently than others.

THE MOST AND LEAST TICKETED VEHICLES

After examining over 323,000 insurance quotes, Insurance.com determined the percentage of drivers who were issued traffic violations for each vehicle model.

Here are the ten vehicle models that received the highest number of traffic tickets:

1. Lexus ES 300: 33.4 percent
2. Nissan 350Z: 32.5 percent
3. Dodge Charger: 32.1 percent
4. Volkswagen Jetta GL: 31.4 percent
5. Chevrolet Monte Carlo LS/LT: 30.8 percent
6. Mazda 3S: 30.3 percent
7. Volkswagen GTI: 30.3 percent
8. Dodge Stratus SXT: 30.2 percent
9. Acura 3.0S/CL: 30.1 percent
10. Toyota Tacoma: 30.1 percent

The following are the ten vehicle models that received the lowest number of traffic tickets:

1. Buick Encore: 3.2 percent
2. Lexus IS350: 3.4 percent
3. Acura ILX: 5.6 percent
4. Cadillac ATS: 6.2 percent
5. Chevrolet Express: 7.7 percent
6. Cadillac Escalade: 8.1 percent
7. GMC Savana: 8.8 percent
8. Audi A3 2 Series: 9.2 percent
9. BMW 320i: 9.9 percent
10. Land Rover Range Rover: 10.9 percent

Safety First

The exact rules surrounding traffic violations can vary depending on your location, but the most common violations include speeding, running a red light, illegal parking and driving without your headlights on. To stay safe and keep your premiums low, it's best to double check the laws in your area and ensure that you follow the rules of the road.
